ARTS COUNCIL PERFORMANCE THIS MONDAY!

These notes will be sent home today with the newsletter on red paper. Apologies about the late notice. We have had this performer in before doing a different show—he is sensational! To avoid missing out, get your permission slips and payments into the office! We are EXCITED!

THIS TERM'S FUN PERFORMANCE: MONSTERS IN MY WARDROBE

Exquisitely crafted children's theatre about a young boy who overcomes his fears.

The story begins with our hero behind the door. At night with his flashlight in his hand he hides under his covers and peeks out at the mysterious shadows, dark corners and the scariest place of all; his wardrobe. He is certain monsters are scratching at the wardrobe door.

Determined to stop them, the boy climbs into the wardrobe and is zapped into a fantastic world, where he is flung into outer space, propelled under the water and into tracing trails of snow and ice. Just as he prepares to battle the monsters, he discovers that when you imagine yourself in the place of others, the 'monsters' you fear, aren't really monsters at all.

Monsters in My Wardrobe is a story about facing your fears and looking at things from another perspective. It is also a story of things not always being as they seem.

Mark Penzaki's approach to children's theatre is imaginative, evocative and stunningly beautiful. His ability to turn the ordinary into the extraordinary is inspiring. In Monsters in My Wardrobe, something as everyday as a wardrobe becomes his set, bursting with secret doors, pop-up monsters and magical effects.

THIS WEEK'S BEHAVIOUR CURRICULUM FOCUS

This week we are teaching students about whole body listening.

WHOLE BODY LISTENING

- Use your eyes to watch the speaker
- Use your ears to listen to the speaker.
- Keep your hands, feet and body still.
- Keep your mouth closed whilst listening.

ANGLICARE

Call 1300610610

One of our partners, Anglicare Southern Queensland works in partnership with individuals, couples and families to develop self-reliance, resilience and independence. They aim to support you, and your family to move through challenges onto a pathway to the life you want.

Their services have been designed to provide early intervention support, counselling and group programs for families experiencing stress due to emotional, physical or economic change.

They adopt a 'whole of family' approach to assist families to identify their strengths and work together to improve those areas causing stress. Each family works with a client care co-ordinator to identify the goals and specific strategies and services required to support the family to realise its full potential.

Their services include:

- Household management
- Parenting support
- Relapse prevention and parenting enhancement program
- Relationship enhancement
- Individual, couple & family counselling
- Child/youth counselling
- Employment preparation
- Post separation parenting
- Post-separation parenting programs
- Children and young adults
- Goal planning
