

Investing for Success

Under this agreement for 2022
Albert State School will receive

$91,831*

This funding will be used to

Enacting the Australian Curriculum, with a focus on English, through pedagogical approaches to enable student success. This will be achieved through:

- Employing effective pedagogical practices.
- Deliberate differentiation.
- Enacting every stage of the moderation cycle.

Measure of success: By the end of 2022, 85% of students achieving a C or better in English.

Our initiatives include

- Building a culture of professional learning and collegial collaboration.
- Enacting every of the moderation cycle, with a focus on English.
- Building the capacity of staff to use ICT to support students learning, with a focus on inclusion and differentiation.
- Utilising Clarity, Lyn Sharratt, as an evidence-base to reflect on and inform teaching and learning initiatives.
- Forming meaningful partnerships with organisations to support student achievement.

Our school will improve student outcomes by

- | | |
|--|----------|
| • Continue to employ a Head of Department: Curriculum (HOD:C) 2 days per week: | $54,880 |
| • Employ staff to deliver deliberate differentiation: | $36,951 |

Gary Boobyer
Principal
Albert State School

Michael De'Ath
Director-General
Department of Education

Queensland Government